Web site

General Format

References Cited:
Last Name, First Name and Initial (s) of Author[followed by First name, Initial(s), and Last Name of Other Authors, if any]
 Year   Title of article. Title of journal or book or web site. <URL> Date accessed.

In-Text:
General reference to the ideas: (Author's Last Name Year)
Specific reference to page number(s) of a quote or idea: (Author's Last Name Year:Page Number[s] is possible)

Note:
1. Full names of author (if available) should be used in place of initials. If you cannot find a person as an author, use the organization or publisher as the author. If you cannot find any author, put "anonymous" as the author. But, is it necessary and credible to use ideas from a source for which you cannot find an author?

Example #2: Web sites with person as author

References Cited:
Gallagher, Colleen
  2002   In 1492. Teaching as a Work of Heart. <http://www.teachingheart.net/ columbus.htm> Accessed April 9, 2003.

In-Text: (Gallagher 2002)

References Cited:
Grate, Lynnette
2002   I, Rigoberta Menchu. Colonial and Postcolonial Literary Dialogues, Western Michigan University. <http://www.wmich.edu/dialogues/texts/ irigobertamenchu.html> Accessed April 10, 2003.

In-Text: (Grate 2002)

References Cited:
Moore, Don
 1989   The Sociolinguistics of Guatemalan Indian Languages and the Effect on Radio, a term paper for a graduate class in socio-linguistics at Ohio University. Broadcasting. Patepluma Radio, International Radio Home Page. <http://www.swl.net/patepluma/central/guatemala/guatlg1.html> Accessed April 3, 2003.

In-Text: (Moore 1989)

Example #3: Personal home page

References Cited:
Pellegrino J.
 1999   Homepage. <http://www.english.eku.edu/pellegrino/default.htm> Accessed

Example #4: Professional organization's web site:

References Cited:
Council of Biology Editors [CBE]
  1999   CBE home page. <http://www.councilscienceeditors.org>. Accessed Oct 7, 1999.

In-Text: (Council of Biology Editors 1999)