DISTINGUISHED FACULTY SERVICE AWARD

CLOSING DATE: Friday, September 26, 2014

The Skidmore College Distinguished Faculty Service Award recognizes a faculty member at Skidmore College for special achievement in service and leadership. The FDC welcomes nominations from faculty colleagues; each nominator will speak to the nominee's record of continuing exceptional service to Skidmore. Excellence in service can include leadership of a department or program, service on committees and task forces, initiatives associated with institutional strategic plans, and initiatives that serve the institution across departments and programs. Although service to the Skidmore community is the primary criterion, service to communities more variously or broadly conceived may be considered. Candidates for this award will have served at the College for a number of years and have compiled a sterling record of contributions to our community.

2010 recipient: Phyllis A. Roth
2011 recipient: Terence Diggory
2012 recipient: Michael Arnush
2013 recipient: Mary Lynn
2014 recipient: Mark Huibregtse

Faculty development grants are designed to help faculty begin new projects, to enhance existing work in pedagogy and/or scholarship, to fund faculty travel for independent or collaborative scholarship; to bring collaborators to campus; or for seed money to finance application for external grants. The final narrative report should be submitted to the Office of the DOF/VPAA within one month of the end of the grant period (no later than October 1 for grants from December through August, and February 1 for grants May through December). The FDC will once again welcome your participation in the selection of the Edwin M. Moseley Faculty Lecturer for 2015-16. To facilitate the nomination process, a nomination form is now available online.

Please submit your nomination using the following link:
<http://www.skidmore.edu/fdc/awards/moseley/moseley-lecture-nomination.php>

<http://www.skidmore.edu/fdc/awards/moseley/moseley-lecture-nomination.php>

If you prefer, nominations will be accepted if submitted directly to the Office of the DOF/VPAA (to the attention of Debbie Peterson). If you choose this alternative option, we ask that you be sure to address the guiding questions provided on the online form in your nomination letter. The deadline is Friday, October 17, 2014.

CRITERIA FOR THE SELECTION OF A MOSELEY FACULTY LECTURER

1. For purposes of this faculty award for scholarly or artistic achievement, academic research and creative work are to be considered on a par. The latter term refers to creative work in the arts, literature, and other areas and may result in forms of presentation other than a formal lecture, such as a reading, performance, or exhibition.
2. Quality of the work should be the primary criterion for selection among the eligible. The standard of quality should be such that publication of the research study or presentation of the creative work shall significantly enhance the academic reputation of the College.
3. Inasmuch as the purpose of this award is to encourage faculty research and creative work at Skidmore, the faculty member should have done the bulk of the work that serves as the basis of his or her selection while a member of the Skidmore faculty.
4. Primary consideration should be given to recent scholarship of exceptional quality; secondary consideration should be given to a record indicating a continuing history of scholarship (as opposed to a single notable accomplishment) and evidence of active current scholarship.
5. Though recipients of this award should be selected primarily on the basis of individual merits, consideration may also be given to 'fair distribution' issues. These include the desire for diversity of discipline, gender, and ethnic background.
6. Only when other things are equal should priority be given to seniority in academic rank or length of service at Skidmore.

FACULTY STUDENT SUMMER RESEARCH PROGRAM

SUMMER 2015

CLOSING DATE: Friday, February 6, 2015

PROGRAM

The Faculty Student Summer Research Program, initially funded in part by the W. M. Keck Foundation, enables teams of Skidmore faculty and students to engage in significant projects over ten-, eight- or five-week periods during the summer. The project should be closely related to the faculty member's curricular, pedagogical, scholarly, or creative interests and should be planned and executed by the student and faculty member working together. Projects should ensure good student learning outcomes.

Projects :

- x May be collaborative but could also include other kinds of mentoring experiences
- x May advance the research agenda of the faculty member
- x May be student-initiated

The project should be defined in such a way as to permit completion of a substantial portion of the project by the end of the research period. Participants in this summer research program are expected to work from campus for the duration of the program. However, if remote off-site work is required, a project may involve time spent at another location (e.g., as part of field work for data collection purposes). In this case, the proposal must include a rationale for this special request.

Each team will give an oral report on the planned project, explaining goals and methods, early in the period; participate in a discussion about the Faculty Student Summer Research Program in early July; and submit a final report, demonstration, poster, exhibition, or other appropriate activity on progress and achievements at the close. If the project involves time spent at another site(s), participants are required to attend the opening and closing summer sessions. A final written report is due from both the student and faculty member no later than September 15.

AWARDS

1. Each faculty participant on a ten-week program will receive a stipend of $2,000; $1,600 for the eight-week program; $1,000 for the five-week program. Depending on the level of external funding for a given project, faculty may receive a portion of the stipend or none at all.
2. Each student participant on a ten-week program will be paid $2,500; $2,000 for the eight-week program; $1,250 for the five-week program. All students will receive free room and board on Skidmore's campus for the duration of the program. Because the program emphasizes the sharing of ideas and experiences, students are strongly urged to live on campus. In exceptional circumstances, students may be granted permission by the FDC and/or the Associate Dean of the Summer Research Program grant may derive summer salary support from outside sources for the portion of the summer either prior to or after their period of commitment under this program.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Faculty/Student teams wishing to participate in the Faculty Student Summer Research Program should submit an application to the Office of the DOF/VPAA by February 6 , 2015. The FDC will communicate its selection of funded proposals to all applicants prior to spring break. The application should consist of the following clearly marked components:

1. the names of the student and faculty team members. Indicate if either has participated in the Faculty Student Summer Research Program before, and if so, when;
2. the title of the project;
3. a description of the project (500 words maximum) written in a fashion comprehensible to non-specialists;
4. a statement written by the faculty member providing a description of the working relationship with the student and how the experience benefits the student's educational, professional, and/or creative goals; a justification for the requested grant period and information regarding external funding; If working with multiple students, the faculty member should rank order them (in case all students on the project cannot be funded).
5. a statement written by the student providing a description of the working relationship with the faculty member and how the experience benefits his/her educational, professional, and/or creative goals;

SCHUPF SCHOLAR PROGRAM

SUMMER 2015

CLOSING DATE: Friday, February 6, 2015

PROGRAM

The Schupf Scholar Program will provide funding for Skidmore students to undertake science research, in collaboration with a faculty member, during the summer following the students' first or second year on campus and through the following academic year. All freshman and sophomore students will be eligible to apply to the program, but selection will be competitive, with applications evaluated by the FDC. Applications will be judged on the potential of the student to undertake a successful collaborative research project, his/her success in finding a faculty partner, and the scientific merit of the project itself.

Preference will be given to students pursuing projects in STEM disciplines and engaged in laboratory or field-based research activities. The Schupf Scholars Program will give special attention to female students whose interests and/or research are in the sciences with low female representation (e.g., chemistry, mathematics/computer science, geosciences, or physics), or students who are doing interdisciplinary science research involving the physical sciences and mathematics/computer science.

In addition, Schupf Scholars will have the opportunity to access additional funds that could serve a number of purposes, including materials, travel to conferences, and supplies. Schupf Scholars are expected to present their work externally, such as a publication and/or a conference presentation. Finally, Schupf Scholars will receive encouragement and assistance to continue their collaborative research work with faculty members into their junior and senior years and to consider graduate and professional school in the natural sciences.

Projects :

- x May be collaborative but could also include other kinds of mentoring experiences

The project period will include participation in the ten-week Faculty Student Summer Research Program as well as continuing research throughout the following year. SKIDMORE COLLEGE ~ POLICY FOR EXTERNAL INSTITUTIONAL GRANTS

This information is meant to complement the preceding “Notes on Preparing Proposals for External Funding” and key material on sponsored research and faculty-originated institutional grants that may be found on the Office of Sponsored Research and the Foundation and Corporate Relations web sites (http://www.skidmore.edu/sponsored_research/ and <http://cms.skidmore.edu/foundations/>). In particular, “Notes on Preparing Proposals for External Funding” contains specific information about idea development and proposal preparation. The focus here is more general, and pertains mainly to institutional grants that arise as a result of RFPs (requests for proposals) or as initiatives of the president, vice presidents, or deans, although it relates as well to faculty-originated grants with a departmental or institutional focus.

INTRODUCTION

The College seeks external funding, particularly from foundations, to advance key institutional priorities. Institutional grants can encourage, respond to, and reward faculty creativity and initiative. Also, by virtue of their resources, both financial and scholarly, leading foundations are engaged in important conversations about the direction of higher education in America. Foundations seek partners in these conversations, and, consistent with our standing as a leading liberal arts institution, Skidmore strives to be a valued partner. Engagement with key foundations often leads to more grant opportunities as well as increased visibility and prestige for the College and for the individuals involved in the conversations.

The only way we can achieve these goals, however, is by demonstrating to foundations that we are an institution where creativity, innovation, and pedagogical and scholarly achievement thrive. We make educational leaders/foundation personnel sit up and take notice mainly by proposing compelling

FACULTY RESPONSIBILITIES

1. People on project development committees are responsible for keeping their colleagues informed of their work.
2. People whose departments are involved in a funding opportunity, but who do not serve on the development committee, are responsible for keeping themselves abreast of proposal/project developments. "Keeping abreast" includes the responsibility to make one's voice heard if one is unhappy with the direction in which the proposal is moving.
3. Once a proposal has been funded, faculty members are responsible for supporting the work their colleagues have performed in developing/creating the successful project.

ADMINISTRATION RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Notify all members of involved departments/programs about grant opportunities. Notify the community at large, at least via regular communication with Academic Staff, of grants the College is pursuing.
2. Involve representatives from appropriate departments/programs/offices in program/proposal development.
3. Notify/involve faculty committees of grant activities as appropriate.

Note: The College also has a responsibility to the funding agency to execute a funded grant essentially as proposed and in accordance with the terms of the award notice. Program grants naturally undergo a certain evolution in the course of their lives. Nevertheless, a successful grant proposal and subsequent award is an agreement between the College and the funding agency whereby the agency agrees to fund a particular program and the College agrees to carry out that program essentially as proposed. Significant alterations to a successful proposal, at least in the short-term, are not normally possible and typically require the prior consent of the funding entity. Discussions of possible changes, including extensions, should be held as far as possible in advance with the Director of Foundation and Corporate Relations or the Director of the Office of Sponsored Research in the case of federal or state funded activities.

Faculty interested in serving as the director of Skidmore's First-Year Experience in London should review the program proposal guidelines (available on the OCSE web site) and should notify the Director of Off-Campus Study & Exchanges.
