

2011 Volleyball Team (Team of Distinction)

This extraordinary team, recalls Head Coach Hilda Arrechea, “displayed pure grit and grace, coming together like no other in memory.” The Thoroughbreds’ remarkable 28-9 record included a 19-2 end-of-season run. They finished first or second in all six tournaments played, including the Liberty League Double Round-Robin. Powered by an unwavering “never-quit” attitude, these tenacious Thoroughbreds captured the 2011 Liberty League Championship Tournament title. They went on to the
