

INSTITUTIONAL

Selected from more than 8,500 applications (our second highest total ever), the Class of 2019 numbers 688 students, including 35 in our London program. This number is just over our target range of 665-685 first-year students. A record 13 % of the class are international students (91)

hailing from 36 countries

university of florida

Debra Townsend is serving as the Interim Vice President for Communica

employees and their dependents and/or add or drop dependents coverage. This upcoming year open enrollment will be Monday November 9th through Wednesday November 25th for our plan year, which starts January 1st.

Also every year we revi

Our primary goals are keeping in place our high quality health care core plans at an affordable cost, which includes our Preferred Provider Organization Plan, which the vast majority of faculty and staff participate in.

members reacting to tht