

MDOGS

JOHN F. MURPHY FOUNDATION FOR CHILDREN'S EDUCATION

COVID-19: Stories from the front lines of a pandemic

All summer, MDOGS has highlighted the unique limitations brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic and since "coviDOCS" series, which shows what life is like for people in our community, are showing groups of people a first-hand look at the resilience and ways of life during this time.

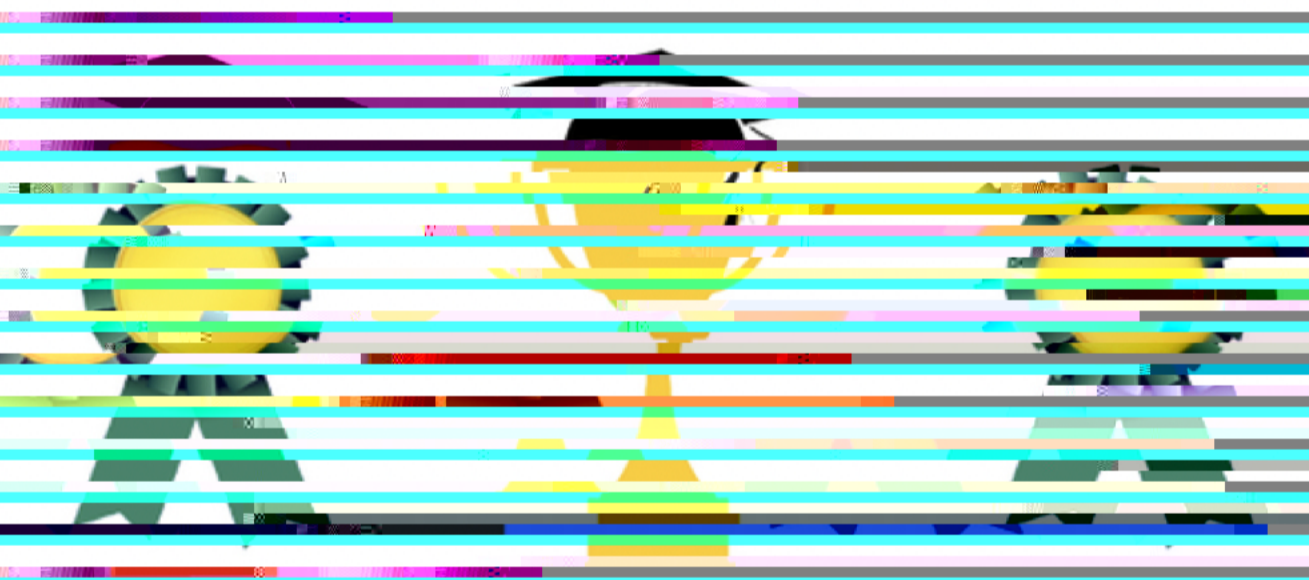

Documentary Studies courses, as well as our remote learning

2020 COVID-19

On the eve of our first virtual awards ceremony, we are proud to announce our annual LIS Virtual Awards. Awards are shared the virtual platform by inviting friends and family to join the celebration.

We also would like to thank our donors and sponsors who have supported our efforts. Check it out through our website.

MDOGS Students Receive Highest Honors

Each May Skidmore Seniors celebrate with the announcement of some of the college's biggest milestones, honors and awards.

MDOGS is thrilled to congratulate:

- Emilie Egan (COCOLLO) for first place in the Competition
- Amanda Peckler (Documentary Major/DOC Lab/Storyteller 2019) for recipient of the Post-Grad Internship Award and American Cultural Award for her interactive Relief in a Generation.
- Hadie Bakker, recipient of the Award for her audio documentary, La Lina.
- Kadjetou Diallo (Storytellers 2020) recipient of the Post-Grad Internship Award.

For more on your MDOGS, visit our Facebook page.

How to Submit Your 2020

The 2020 City Streets Institute begins in less than 2 weeks and we are looking for our community to help submit our entries and MDOGS staff while combating Zoom planning is co-creation and we are excited to together with our friends in a virtual celebration. Share it all at the beginning of July. Stay tuned for updates.

Skidmore College
343 North Broadway
Saratoga Springs, NY 12865
518.585.6100