How to Obtain a U.S. Passport

All students studying abroad must have a passport in order to travel to their overseas destination. In addition, those of you who need visas will need a passport before you can apply for a visa. Passport applications are available at most U.S. Post Offices, although the applications are processed through the U.S. Department of State (DOS). Please contact your local Post Office to see if it is a passport agent. Instructions for first-time applicants are available on the DOS Web site at <http://travel.state.gov/content/passports/english/passports/new.html>.
